Go, Go, Go!

One ball rolling slow, slow, slow.

Catch it, catch it,
go, go, go!
Crawling, crawling, two knees race.

One ball caught. One happy face!
Tumble-bumble kittens,
Soft, soft fur.
Tumble-bumble kittens,
Purr, purr, purr.

Point to and count the kittens and talk about what each one is doing. Then have fun sharing more words that rhyme with tumble (rumble, humble, stumble, tumbler, etc.).
Talk with your child about all the things you could do in this backyard. Then point to and name some of the colors you see.
You have ten toes.

You have one mouth.
You have one nose.
You have two eyes.

You have ten fingers.
You have two ears.
You have one belly button.
It's right here!
Clap, Clap, Clap

(To the tune of “Row, Row, Row Your Boat”)
By Katie L. Carroll • Art by Kay Widdowson

Clap, clap, clap your hands.
Stomp your little feet.

Sing this song and then make up more verses. For example, “Tap, tap, tap your lap. Stomp your little feet. Bibbly, bobbly, bibbly, bobbly, dancing to the beat.”

Wibbly, wobbly, wibbly, wobbly, Dancing to the beat.
Bye-Bye!
